Please welcome our Minister Candidates Malcolm Himschoot and Mariah Hayden!

Mariah is ordained in the United Methodist Church and has served in a variety of roles from youth minister and interim minister to senior pastor from 2005 to the present at congregations in Denver, Minnesota and most recently Cleveland. She served in AmeriCorps and has ministered to the homeless, addicted, in-recovery, ex-offenders, mentally ill and communities living in poverty. Mariah has nearly completed her Doctor of Ministry in “Ecology, Justice & Ministry”. She has a passion for food justice broadly defined. She is currently running an urban farm in Cleveland complete with bees and chickens.

Malcolm is ordained as a UCC minister who has served congregations in Colorado and Minnesota from 2003 to 2012 in a variety of roles including senior pastor. Since 2012, he has worked at the national offices of the United Church of Christ, as the Minister for Ministerial Calls and Transitions based in Cleveland. Malcolm is proficient in Spanish and has worked with immigrants. He has taught a class at divinity school in “UCC History, Polity and Theology” and has nearly completed his Doctor of Divinity.

Malcolm and Mariah have two 11-year old children, Madeline and Andrew.
